From

E. R. SUBRAYER, Esq.,
Comptroller of Mysore

To

The Secretary to the Government
Bellyśore Revenue and General Departments

SIR,

In returning herewith duly audited the bill for cost of tents supplied from the Reformatory School at Jabalpur amounting to Rs 5023/- I beg to state that the existing practice of drawing amounts which are of the nature of contingencies but which are specially sanctioned on bills other than those intended for contingent expenditure makes it difficult for this office to watch the receipt of Vouchers to be furnished by the Papers and to suggest therefore that the ordinary practice of drawing the amounts on abstract bills and accounting for them on detailed contingent bills may be followed in regard to the Specially Sanctioned Expenditure also. with this difference that in the Case of the latter the authority is quoted in the Detailed Contingent bills.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obdt Servant

E. Thornton
